Starke, Fla., June 21, 1895.

A MAJORITY of the newspapers of Florida favor the white metal.

THE Pasco County Democrat is an ardent silverite, and its editor hard blows.

THE Jacksonville election is over, but there is no manner of estimating the number of injunctions etc. that will be asked for.

It is understood that there is movement on foot to nominate ex-Governor Bloxham for the first place on the democratic state ticket law published elsewhere, and strictly obey the provisions contained therein.

STATE HEALTH LAW.

The legislature of 1895 passed law defining and declaring what shall be deemed nuisances injurious to health and providing for the retherefor, and as its provisions are of importance to the people of Starke just at this time, we give bemost force upon municipalities:

Section 1. A sanitary nuisance is hereby declared to to be the commission of an act, by an individual, municipality, organization or cor poration, or the keeping, maintaining, propagation, existence or permission of anything, by an individual, municipality, organization or corporation, by which the health or life of an individual, or the health or lives of individuals, may be threatened or impaired, or by which or through which, directly or indirectly, disease may be caused.

Section 2. That filth, the con tents of cess-pools, offal, garbage. foul water, dye water, refuse from manufactories, urine, stable manure, decayed animal or vegetable matter, or other offensive substance detor allowed to remain in or upon any private premises, street, avenue, alley side-walk, gutter, public reservation, or open lot within any incoror village in the State of Florida. are hereby declared nuisances injurions to health; and any person who attachments in this city. shall commit, create or maintain the
